(c) whether Government have taken any decision on the recommendation of Malimath Committee regarding reduction of long vacations in the High Courts and Supreme Court, which might go a long way on the early disposal of the pending cases both in High Courts and Supreme Court, and if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI H.R. BHARDWAJ): (a) and (b) The disposal rate not being adequate for the pendency, the Government has initiated a number of measures which include, timely filling the vacancies of judges, increasing the judge strength, grouping of cases etc. The Eleventh Finance Commission recommended a scheme for creation of 1734 Fast Track Courts at a cost of Rs. 502.90 crore. 1562 FTCs were functional, and they have disposed of 7.94 lakh cases so far, out of 15.28 lakh cases transferred to them. Thus disposing of more than 50% of cases assigned to them. Further, they have disposed of 2.81 lakh sessions cases, out of 4.41 lakh cases transferred to them. The Government has extended the term of existing 1562 Fast Track Courts for another five years i.e. upto 31.3.2010 for clearing huge pendency of cases at District level.

(c) No, Sir.

Pending cases

2752. SHRI N.R. GOVINDRAJAR: Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether a large number of civil, criminal and service matter cases are pending with the Supreme Court and various High Courts for more than five years;

(b) if so, the details thereof separately, category-wise, court-wise; and

(c) the effective steps proposed to be taken by Government for the speedy disposal of the long pending cases?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI K. VENKATAPATHY): (a) and (b) A Statement is enclosed (See below).

(c) In order to reduce pendency of cases Government has initiated a number of measures which include, timely filling the vacancies of judges, increasing the judge strength, grouping of cases, involving common question of law, constitution of specialized benches, organizing Lok Adalats at regular intervals encouraging alternative modes of dispute resolution like negotiation, mediation and arbitration, and setting up of special tribunals like Central Administrative Tribunals, State Administrative Tribunals, Income Tax Appellate Tribunals, Family Courts and Labour Courts. Further it has been decided to focus on reforms in a few core areas which include computerization of judiciary, disposal through fast track courts, development of physical infrastructure and evolution of strategies to cope with massive governance related inadequacies in Indian Judiciary through studies, pilots and reform projects. The Government has extended the term of existing 1562 Fast Track Courts for another five year i.e. upto 31.3.2010 for clearing huge pendency of cases at District level.
